

The Sea of Life by Frances M Lynch
A song about Marine Biologist, Nora Miller

Seasounds

Agnes EleaNORA! Miller,
Singing, Playing, Diving, Teaching;
Sharks and Birds, Fossils and Fish

CHORUS

She loved to swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life
She loved to swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life,
She loved to swim in the Sea

(RAP) Marine Biologist, Nora Miller, diving in Bermuda, you oughta have seen her

VERSE 1

Bloong, plu plu plu (etc)
Nora slips in to the surface of the sea (x 2)
Boots and helmet weigh her down,
Her friend pumps air into her suit
Phew! This is hard work ---- Just Keep Pumping (as if underwater)
Then Nora sinks down to the bottom of the sea (x 2)
Down in the deep a camera in her hand
She's searching' She's filming, She's waitin'
Waiting for her friend to pull her up!

CHORUS

So she can swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life
She loved to swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life,
She loved to swim in the Sea

(RAP) Marine Biologist, Nora Miller,
Studying the lungfish, a strange but true fish,
Living in a swamp in South America.

VERSE 2

Bloong, plu plu plu (etc)
Lung fish pops up to the surface of the pool (x2)
Blub blub..... The fish pops up and gulps some air –
GULP! Blub blub GULP!
Then Lung Fish sinks down to the bottom of the pool (x 2)
(It's drying up now!)
Down in the mud she burrows in a hole
She's waitin', She's sleepin', she's waitin';
Waiting for the rain

CHORUS

So she can swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life
She loved to swim in the Sea of Life, the Sea of Life,
Nora Marine biologist.
