

electric voice theatre
Minerva Scientifica
Echoes from Inverclyde

LYRICS for All Saints Primary 6 Songs

Georgetown Munitioneers

by All Saints P6B

CHORUS

Georgetown munitioneers
Rattle an clank and whirr
The day is long the day is hard
Rattle an clank and whirr
Rattle an clank and whirr
Day in day out, all day, all night,
Rattle an clank and whirr

Verse 1

Jane, Jane you're such a pain, but now you're a porter.
Maud, Maud you're such a fraud, now you're driving a van.
Kate, Kate your nerves in a state, now you sit on high mending telephone wires,
And May, lounging on the sofa all day,
Now you're busy with Jane and Maud and Kate, May You're all doing your bit for the war.

CHORUS

Verse 2

Tick Tock Tick Tock
On the night shift
When the factory is lit up
With it's myriad of electric lights
It looks like a veritable fairy land

Tick Tock Tick Tock
On the night shift
As the hours creep slowly past
You find yourself longing
For the first interval and a breath of fresh air
And some refreshment!

Bing Bing Bing
Hurray!!! (SLURP, eat, chat noises)
Bing Bing Bing
OH no!

CHORUS

electric voice theatre
Minerva Scientifica
Echoes from Inverclyde

A LETTER FROM HOME

by All Saints P6A

CHORUS

A LETTER FROM HOME

Show him that you really care

Send a letter from home

And when you've time to spare

Just drop a line to him who bears the brunt

A letter from home

It's not a heavy task, it's not a deal to ask

For one who waits your letter at the front

A LETTER FROM HOME

Verse 1

Dear Robert,

Today I went to the general Store

Our Georgetown store

We've got a good supply of Birds Eye Custard,

Salt and pepper and Colman's Mustard

Chops and beefsteak, pork, bacon and ham

And pots of clear honey and strawberry jam

I am sending you some honey too, I hope it arrives in time for your birthday -

I know how much you like it!

Our George-town store

A LETTER FROM HOME

Verse 2

Dear George, I have a surprise for you and the rest of the R.A.F.

We bought an aeroplane, yes we did, we saved up from our wages

We did it all for you, yes we did, so you can win the war soon

A letter from Home

Dear Edward. I wanted to let you know that we finally took delivery of the aeroplane we had built for the

RAF. The engineer who flew it here said:

I built an aeroplane even though I'm a woman, Vroom

She built an aeroplane even though she's a woman, Vroom

A LETTER FROM HOME

electric voice theatre
Minerva Scientifica
Echoes from Inverclyde

Verse 3

*Dear Sandy, the shift was very hard last night so the canteen was very quiet except for 2 of the girls,
Grace and Martha, who were gossiping about Jean who sings in the choir:*

Have you heard the gossip?
She fancies she can sing
She's flat like Lizzie's flat feet
A LETTER FROM HOME

Verse 4

*Dear Joe, I am very well, thanks for asking. We have our own doctor here at Georgetown.
She is a very nice woman, and you don't have to pay!*

Our doctor Our doctor
Who makes us gargle well our throats Our doctor Our doctor
And lets us wear our winter coats Our doctor Our doctor
Who makes me hide my pretty face with respirator not of lace?
It's made of scratchy wool!! Our doctor Our doctor
A LETTER FROM HOME

Yours Aye

Come home soon

The Georgetown Girls